What is the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)?

To be awarded financial aid, you must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Apply online at fafsa.ed.gov.

What is a grant?

Grants are awards based on financial need that do not need to be repaid. This type of financial aid is awarded by UNLV, the state of Nevada, and the U.S. Department of Education utilizing your FAFSA information. Grant dollars have limited financial funding streams.

The UNLV Grant is awarded to students who show financial need based on their FAFSA information. Awards vary between $500 and $3,900. Visit finaid.unlv.edu to learn more.

What is a loan?

Loans, which can help you pay your tuition and fees, as well as living expenses, must be repaid, usually after you graduate, withdraw from college, or drop below half-time enrollment status (fewer than six credit hours per semester for undergraduates).

What is a scholarship?

Scholarships, like grants, do not need to be repaid. Many scholarships are awarded by private donors based on a variety of criteria established by the donor of the scholarship program. Scholarship awards vary from $250 to $5,000 per year. Many scholarship awards are renewable, but some are a one-time occurrence. Effective for fall 2010, complete the "scholarship" section of the application for admission to be eligible.
